

the Maze

from small things someone you can lean on your eyes are lookin' shy and wet your mind seems to be far away and I can only hold you close there's nothing I can do or say I'd like to help you if I could but desperately look for words can only try to ease the pain but I can't free you from your sorrow

I find myself in front of you but cannot cross that big cold wall I'm someone you can lean on but I just can't help you at all

I swear that if I found the keys to where all of your problems lie to where you hide your dirty deeds I'd search until I die I swear I'd come home, hero-like to tear 'em all apart with swords none of these shadows will haunt you again
I swear, and you shall trust my words

I stay in front of you while I dream all that stuff but I can promise you for sure I will be there when times get rough the sound of her words

I take a walk out in the park On a sunny day in May and find a letter on a bench I start to read and melt away A girl tells me about her love about her dreams, her dearest thoughts

I sit there and forget the time and travel on infinite roads

There have been times I was in love but now there's only emptiness buried my heart so deep inside to keep it in one piece I guess her words they make me feel anew they sound alive and oh so sweet the girl who wrote them seems to be a kind of girl I like to meet

Tomorrow morning I'll come back to see if I can find a girl who looks like she has lost something who looks like she could be my pearl I'll tell her I have found something that could be what she's looking for I'll tell her that I fell in love I'm ready if she wants some more

I sit there and forget the time

give the beat back who's this impertinent person with this sexy shirt on there who is this wonderful woman stealing my mind with just one smile when I saw her at the pool I felt something but don't know what now I'm looking like a fool reading to cool my hot blood don't think girl I'm interested only one thing is requested give the beat back to my heart don't let me wait till you want it to do

give the beat back to my heart let me take you in my arms don't let me fall

I'm cool babe don't you know that I'm fed up I don't wanna get hurt I've been told a lot of lies by girls with much sweeter smiles but here's something in particular for you I'd stop my inner war you could really break the ice come on take me by surprise but I say please girl please

give the beat back to my heart
don't let me wait till you want it to do
give the beat back to my heart

I give up I have enough girl believe me that you've won I surrender to your sweetness be the anchor for my restlessness love me tender pull me tight let me feel you in the night I agree in everything with you

give the beat back to my heart
don't let me wait till you want it to do
give the beat back to my heart

eye to eye (with the pacific)

I got some flashbacks of my work a grey computer and a desk but I push these thoughts straight away I'm lying on my back to rest my eyes hit the horizon line And close so I can start to dream My skin's warmed by a gentle sun I'm so enchanted by the scene

I live my day without regrets to live as I knew it before I'm sure I never will go back
I hear a nice voice calling me stay at this beach for your whole life make this place your eternity

I watch the birds up in the sky and I thank god he made this shore well in this land of milk and honey seems you can't long for nothing more tomorrow I might make some plans what I'm about to do next week today I live and I don't care and let the sun shine on my cheek

to live as I knew it before

but suddenly I hesitate there's even something missing here something just to complete the scene that fits in here so perfectly I dream of you beside of me and of me making love to you well on this isle so beautiful it seems as if such dreams come true

to live as I knew it before

if we kiss

oh girl what have you done to me I sit here and I cannot sleep it's three a.m. and I've got to write since I've met you I work at night to finish all the lyrics that just keep on swimming in my head you're feeding my best fantasies you're even starring in my dreams what would happen if we kissed would my poison meet your lips would it intoxicate your heart would it be a great love's start what would happen if my love managed it into your heart would my fever infect you make you feel the way I do could you be more than just a friend I don't know how your no is meant cause sometimes when you're close to me I wonder how the things could be friendship's a different kind of love but could it be strong enough to lead us out of that troubled zone and make us both feel less alone

I'm always feeling less alone when I read your name on my phone tonight I also wish it'd ring to talk to you 'bout everything to be your lover would be great but I will always be your mate in every way it can't be wrong you are my muse I'm writing songs but what would happen if we kissed would my poison meet your lips

j-days

I search for words and cannot find the way they should come out of me I'm sure 'bout everything in dreams but shy and unsure in reality for all those locked doors in my heart there must be keys somewhere to find but where to search for all these keys it doesn't come into my mind another day will follow soon another chance that I can take to find my luck, to find my love but also risk my heart to break

I sit here and I watch you go another day has just passed by another chance I didn't take to stop being insecure and shy

but also risk my heart to break

I lie awake in bed and feel just too much space there next to me I hug my pillow kiss my sheet alone with all my fantasies tomorrow I swear by my god tomorrow I will take your hand and all these feelings that I hide come out of me the way they're meant to be

slim line the last weeks were a crazy time I lived my life a dreadful mess it covered all the pain in me that's what I finally confess I thought I had my heart turned south and felt a little love again but everytime there are setbacks my mood changes from sun to rain my fear whispers inside of me I'll get you sooner than you think my hope tries to push her away she fights to keep the weakened link I stand here cannot say a word here clouds that rain - here sun that shines and everyday I try to keep the balance on this slim, slim line some people may just wonder why I don't call myself a lucky man I have got a job - some good cold cash some friends who like me as I am a new job lays ahead of me but that can't cover the sad fact there's no one there for me at night there's too much space in my big bed a nice word whispered in my ear a hand that squeezes mine so tight a mind to which I share my thoughts a body I can hold at night a pair of eyes that make me blind a heartbeat just the same as mine a shoulder on which I can cry a girl I can call valentine

I stand here cannot say a word

worst case scenario tell me girl what's on your mind I lie here - can't close my eyes was it all a game to you or do you like the things you do better try not to explain words are really so in vain better kiss me one more time even if it is a crime

love me baby –
stay with me another night why did you come through that door what were you really lookin' for sayin' words like I want you doing what we shouldn't do life will never be the same girl, have we been that insane where's your hand now getting to makin' me another fool

stealing all my self defence bringin' trouble to my plans makin' me betray a friend violate this moral sense

never wanna go again

well: lights out tonight wanna feel you coverin' me I never lived in better times than the times I'm glad to live in now it seems so far away the times I lived through in the past it made me sad and weak cause things were happenin' oh so fast but now I have survived I don't know really how the only thing I know is that it is over now

to these badlands of the past never wanna feel the pain I hope today will always last otherwise we keep on pushin' keep on pushin' till it lasts they told me all at school that I'm just becoming worse and I could feel my wounds but you're playin' my nurse and now I stood up never wanna get sick never wanna lyin' down never wanna walk with a stick

meet me (where the four winds blow)

I take a walk at one a.m. enjoy the silence of the land one look upwards to all the stars I have the whole world in my hand I walked this path a thousand times in good times and in bad times too tonight I walk it all alone but in my mind I am with you if you wanna find me as I am there's only one place you need to go this isle, this house, these fields, this beach

so come and meet me here tonight I'll show you all I have and more together we can maybe find all these things we are looking for don't be afraid of nature's force it's only one sign of god's grace if you try to be one with her she writes her lines upon your face

take me to the stars

Sitting on my grandma's porch Watching the stars come out at night Turning to her with a smile

This is what I'll do for life I will be an astronaut Travelling to space and back Maybe one time to the moon Following Neil Armstrong's track

Take me to the stars
To their silence and their grace
Take me to the stars
Make me feel a part of space
Take me to the stars
Teach me what's eternity
Take me to the stars
This is where I want to be

Walking through a lonely night Thinking 'bout to end it all My life seems to be a mess I don't want that anymore She just told me her love had died And I have so much love to give In a world where love can die I don't want to live

Take me to the stars
Lead me to a better place
Take me to the stars
Let their cold light dry my face
Take me to the stars
Now that I'm about to die
Take me to the stars
To a different kind of life

Walking back from my new girl I could embrace everyone

I tell the moon I am in love Tell the old man she's the one I look up to the stars above And I can see God's guiding lights They gently pave the way for me I walk on singing through this night

Take me to the stars
Tell them that I fell in love
Take me to the stars
She sure is sent from heaven above
Take me to the stars
Oh I feel more than all right
Take me to the stars
I could live no better life

take your chance and meet the girl one day she might be your bride make the call and get the job it might feed you your whole life stand up when they want you down someday we all might be free raise your voice against racism someday all the people see take a stone out of a wall one day it will tumble down built a group of little houses someday it might be a town what's been done by you today may soon be done by everyone from small things that's what I believe big things one day come show your enemy a smile maybe it'll cool him down take a deep breath for a while so you may hear silent sounds try to tell the truth each time someday all the lies are banned if you live your life at random things may turn the way you planned

try to stay yourself each day once each man can live his dream don't hide if you're feeling down once all people might be seen if you don't try to score some games might been won try to smile just once a day you can be a happy one
